Well-being in a constructive and civilized manner

Trade Union Pro creates well-being for its members. Well-being is something to work for, as occupational well-being and productivity go hand in hand.

One of the biggest trade unions in Finland

Trade Union Pro is the largest private sector union for clerical employees and the largest member union of the Finnish Confederation of Professionals STTK.

Pro is a strong and responsible influencer in Finnish working life and labour markets. Its operations are based on its wide membership and steady economy.

Pro in a nutshell (February 2017):

- The trade union for experts and supervisors
- 115 000 members, of whom 85 000 in the labour market.
- Group's net assets 144 million euro
- Employs 162.
- Negotiates 60 collective agreements.
- 235 company or regional level member organs.
- Domicile Helsinki, operations in the whole Finland.

Advice and help

We advise and help our members with the expertise of the most skillful professionals.

Most workplaces have a shop steward from Pro to look after the members. Feel free to contact us and share your troubles!

Extensive legal assistance

When Pro takes an employment dispute to court proceedings, it is free of charge to members.

The value of this benefit can reach tens of thousands of euro. For our members, it's free of risk.

Unemployment security

As a Pro member, you will receive the union services and earnings-related daily allowance if you are unemployed and meet the conditions.

Our unemployment fund has some of the fastest service in the field: we'll help you in no time!

Customised career services

One's own career is an important issue for everyone, and good advice is needed.

Pro will provide you with a personal coach for this task as well. Make an appointment online and chat with them about anything work-related: a new CV, job application or promotion plans.
